Re: Qwest/McLeodUSA Telecommunications Services, Inc. ("McLeodUSA") QPPTM Agreement

Dear Ms. Jeffcoat-Sacco:

Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") and McLeodUSA recently executed a commercial agreement relating to the provisioning of switching and shared transport. The agreement is entitled "Master Services Agreement" and includes, marked as Exhibit 1, the "Qwest Platform Plus<sup>TM</sup> Service" (together hereinafter, the "QPPTM Agreement").

I am submitting with this letter a courtesy copy of the QPPTM Agreement for informational purposes only. The reason that I am submitting the QPPTM Agreement for informational purposes only is because Qwest believes that section 252(e) of the Telecommunications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 252(e), does not requiring filing of the QPPTM Agreement for approval with state commissions.

As you are likely aware, the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals' decision in what has been termed USTA II became effective on June 16, 2004.<sup>1</sup> In USTA II, the D.C. Circuit vacated various rules promulgated by the FCC including, but not limited to, the requirement pursuant to section 251(c)(3) that incumbent local exchange carriers unbundle certain network elements, including switching and shared transport. As stated by the FCC, the section 252(e) filing obligation applies to "an agreement that creates an ongoing obligation pertaining to resale, number portability, dialing parity, access to rights-of-way, reciprocal compensation, interconnection, unbundled network elements, or collocation."<sup>2</sup> Combining the impact of the D.C. Circuit's opinion with the FCC's Declaratory Ruling regarding section 252(e), there are no section 251(c)(3) obligations on the incumbent to provide switching and shared transport as unbundled network elements and, thus, there are no section 252(e) filing obligations associated with the QPPTM Agreement.

<sup>2</sup> In the Matter of Qwest Communications International Inc. Petition for Declaratory Ruling on the Scope of the Duty to File and Obtain Prior Approval of Negotiated Contractual Arrangements under Section 252(a)(1), para. 8 (emphasis that of the FCC).

The QPP™ Agreement was posted on the Qwest Wholesale website in its entirety and up through January 31, 2005 was available to all carriers that agreed to all of the terms and obligations assumed by McLeodUSA. Further, Qwest has filed the QPP™ Agreement with the Federal Communications Commission under 47 U.S.C. § 211(a).
