

Ryan Schmaltz, North Dakota One Call

Ryan Schmaltz is the Director of Education and Public Relations for North Dakota One Call. He was born in Minot, North Dakota and grew up in Grand Forks where he attended the University of North Dakota. Before starting his current position with North Dakota One Call, Ryan worked for Nodak Electric Cooperative in Grand Forks for 6 years doing various things such as outage and line crew management, energy services, and load management. It was during his time with the electric cooperative that he became very familiar with underground facility damage prevention and one-call systems. Ryan has worked for North Dakota One Call since late 2013 and resides in Bismarck with his wife, Erin and 4 daughters.
