

The most likely volume of oil should failure occur in the pipe segments along Lake Ashtabula is 269 barrels. There is a 10% chance that that the estimated volume will exceed 2,610 barrels. The estimated maximum is 13,400 barrels.

Based on average pipeline data – not segment specific data.

EXHIBIT
 FGO 12-5