Ms. Illona Jeffcoat Sacco –

Pursuant to the recent letter dated July 25, 2007 from Administrative Law Judge Al Wahl in the above referenced matter, I am attaching electronic copies for the four delayed Exhibits that are required to be filed in the Public Convenience & Necessity case, namely:

1. T3 – The Interstate Commerce Act authority for common carrier status of Keystone Pipeline with Summary;
2. T4 – The Energy Information Administration (EIA) Annual Energy Outlook 2007 with Projections to 2030;
3. T5 – The Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers (CAPP) Summary, July 2005 Report and May 2006 Report; and
4. T6 – Bond Ratings Statement with 10 year History for TransCanada.

Due to the voluminous size of these delayed Exhibits, I have only forwarded the electronic copy of each of these items for your review and use. If you would require a hard copy please advise. Otherwise, I will assume that you or the Commissioners will be able to review, at your discretion, the enclosed electronic version of these Exhibits and obtain the specific information that you require from these different attachments. Below are a couple of websites that might be helpful.

With regard to the reference made in the testimony to the EIA report they are the 2006 Annual Energy Review located at <http://www.eia.doe.gov/emeu/aer/>, however, the 2007 version is also now available online at that website. The sections and diagrams/figures of particular relevance are:

Energy Perspectives
Energy Production
Energy Consumption
Energy Resources
Petroleum

Specifically, Diagram 2 at page 123 showing approx 20 million bpd consumption of crude in US. Also, Figure 5.4 at page 136 showing Petroleum Imports by Country of Origin.

In addition, with regard to the material regarding the CAPP Report it is available on the CAPP website which may be reviewed directly at: www.capp.ca.

Also, please note that I have forwarded this email message along with the electronic copies of the delayed Exhibits to all interested parties, including AJL Al Wahl, Attorney Nicholas Delaney, Attorney William Binek, Attorney Thomas D. Kelsch, Attorney Jim White and Pat Fahn.

Sincerely,

Todd D. Kranda
