threw his stick in the air.

Now the Sioux, seeking their eighth national title and first since 2000, will face Boston College in Denver on April 10, the same team that has eliminated them the past two seasons in the national semifinals.

"We seem to find a way to find each other at this time of year," Hakstad said. "They got us last year and obviously that's something that sticks with you."

At least they can look forward to another game against the Eagles. That looked in doubt heading into the third trailing 2-0 after goals by Wisconsin defensemen Jamie McBain and Cody Goloubeff in the second.

It could have been even more, but Lamoureux, named the Midwest Regional's Most Outstanding Player, stopped Michael Davies' breakaway midway through the second period. Lamoureux, the nation's stingiest goalie allowing 1.63 goals per game entering play Sunday, made 79 saves in the two games, including 41 against the Badgers.

North Dakota senior captain Rylan Kaip got North Dakota (28-10-4) on the board when he swung around and sent his shot through Connelly's legs with 16:27 left in the third period.

"He scored a greasy goal," Duncan said. "It was a huge one and we just needed to get that first one by Connelly because he'd had our number."

Just 47 seconds later, Oshie left a drop pass for Duncan, whose shot rang off the pipe but settled in the net to tie the game 2-2.

"Somehow it clanged off the post and ricocheted in the back of the net, so I was definitely surprised to see it go in," said Duncan, last year's Hobey Baker winner who scored his fourth goal of the tournament and has 65 for his career. "It looks good because I ended up scoring the tying goal, but there are a lot of guys who don't get the accol worked as body."

Wisconsin they belong Badgers still two straight something done since)

It turned more head after Goloubeff when his shot off the end back off Lan "Wisconsin lucky Breoureaux said have been for our team goal and a t going into t we regroup ly."
