Comments:

In June, 2008, the Public Service Commission received an application for a roving grain buyer's license from Hytek, Ltd. Sometime later you called our office and asked that we refund the license fees and return the application documents. You indicated that the application had been submitted in error.

The roving grain buyer license application for Hytek, Ltd. is still pending. We must have a written request before we can issue a refund. I understood from phone conversations with Hytek, Ltd. employees that Hytek, Ltd. would buy grain in North Dakota that would not be purchased through the Sky Can, Ltd. grain warehouse facility in Cando, North Dakota. Please explain.

Thank you and please call if you have questions.
