ADDITIONAL TERMS OF CONTRACT - JAMES VALLEY GRAIN, LLC

1. This contract is subject to the rules and regulations of the National Grain and Feed Association. All disputes and controversies between Buyer and Seller under this contract shall, if elected by Buyer in its sole discretion, be settled by binding arbitration with the National Grain and Feed Association if applicable, and if not applicable shall, if elected by Buyer in its sole discretion, be resolved by binding arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Buyer reserves all of its other rights and remedies at law or in equity.

2. The Seller warrants title to the commodities sold under this contract, free and clear of any security interest, lien, penalty, charge, or encumbrance, governmental or otherwise. The seller also warrants that such commodities shall:

- (a) Conform to the description on the front side hereof;
- (b) Be merchantable and fit for sale to domestic and foreign customers of the Buyer;
- (c) Be grown within the continental United States except as otherwise stated on the front side hereof;
- (d) Not to be adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, as amended, and regulations, or include any article or commodity that may not, under the provisions of such Act, be introduced in interstate commerce;
- (e) Be free of all fumigants and pesticides; and
- (f) Not contain any transgenic genes or traits that are not approved for sale in Japan, Mexico, the European Union, or other U.S. export markets.

Any commodity not in compliance with the foregoing warranties, and any commodity, irrespective of grade, which is tagged, seized, condemned, declared unfit, or is otherwise actionable by any federal, state or local department, agency or other entity shall so fail to conform to this contract that the Seller shall retain title to and the risk or loss of such commodity. All cost and expenses incurred by the Buyer with respect to any such commodity shall be for the account of the Seller, and the Seller, on demand, shall reimburse the Buyer for the same.

3. Except as otherwise agreed, each shipment shall be applied to the oldest open contract between the Buyer and the Seller.

4. If the Seller repudiates this contract or fails to make shipment in accordance with this contract, or if the Buyer, in its sole discretion, determines that any commodities are nonconforming and rejects or revokes acceptance of any such commodities, the Buyer may, without notice to the Seller, extend the time of shipment of conforming commodities, cancel this contract, or buy in the commodities for the Seller's account and notify the Seller when settlement is made. In the event that the Buyer shall decide to buy in, the Buyer shall either buy in the commodities at destination, or affect a settlement based on the price that the Buyer must pay for the same kind and grade of commodities at equal stations. In any event, the Seller shall pay to the Buyer on demand the amount of any such settlement.

5. The Buyer reserves the right to accept or reject off grade grain, and if such grain is accepted, to apply off grade grain at market difference without first notifying the Seller.

6. Acceptance of any delivery by the Buyer after any breach of this contract by the Seller shall not waive any rights or remedies accruing to the Buyer as a result of such breach. Payment by the Buyer is conditioned upon the Seller's completion of delivery of the total quantity. Any payment made prior to completion of delivery is merely an accommodation. In making such accommodation, the Buyer does not waive any conditions of this contract to be performed by the Seller.

7. The Buyer shall not be liable in any respect for failure or delay in the performance of this contract if hindered or prevented directly or indirectly by Acts of God, weather conditions, car, vessel or truck shortages, freight embargoes, strikes, labor difficulties, governmental action of any kind, shortage of fuel or other types of energy, or any other causes reasonably beyond the Buyer's control. In addition, the Buyer shall not be liable in any way for any failure or delay in performance hereunder arising or resulting from shortage of fuel or other types of energy which may be within the Buyer's control. If the Buyer for any reason is unable to receive any commodities, Seller shall extend the time for delivery to such periods of time the Buyer can receive delivery.

8. The Seller shall pay to the Buyer on demand all cost and expenses of collection, including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The Buyer shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights or remedies under this contract or any applicable law, rule or regulation unless the waiver is in writing, and no waiver shall operate as waiver of any other right or remedy or of the same right or remedy of any future occasion. This contract shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Buyer and the Seller and their successors and assigns. This contract can not be assigned without the written consent of the other party.

9. The terms hereof constitute the entire understanding of the Buyer and the Seller with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements and understandings regarding the same. No contract, agreement or confirmation issued by the Seller shall in any way alter, vary or add to the terms of this contract. The Buyer hereby gives notice of objection to all terms supplied by the Seller which are in addition to, different from or inconsistent with the terms hereof.
