RE: Telecommunications Reseller's Bond

The North Dakota Public Service Commission received notice that Ionex Communications North, Inc.'s telecommunications reseller's bond will be cancelled (see attached). Unless the Commission receives a valid bond before July 3, 2009, Ionex Communications North, Inc. will be in violation of North Dakota Law, and will be subject to penalty.

Ionex Communications North, Inc. continues to be registered with the North Dakota Public Service Commission to provide telecommunications services. The registration indicates that prepayments are required from customers. Therefore, under North Dakota Administrative Code 69-09-05-04, a current performance bond must be on file with the Commission.

Any person/company who violates or fails to comply with the laws and rules of the Commission is guilty of a Class A Misdemeanor, and is subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed five thousand dollars, in addition to any other penalty provided. (NDCC 49-07)

If the company is still providing telecommunications service in North Dakota, a new bond must be submitted prior to the cancellation of the existing bond. If the company no longer provides telecommunications service in North Dakota, please discontinue the registration on our website at www.psc.state.nd.us/jurisdiction/telecom.html.

If you have any questions, please contact the North Dakota Public Service Commission at (701) 328-2400.

Sincerely,

Patrick Fahn, Director
