Wins Mr. Basketball

Randall received six first-place votes and 48 points to edge out Fargo North's Nik Savageau. The Spartan guard actually received more first-place votes (seven), but finished with 46 points.

Turtle Lake-Mercer-McClusky's Grant Singer was third with two first-place votes and 29 points. Mandan's Bryan Kielpinski received 12 points. Randall's recognition follows by a week that of Kidder County's Eli Benz, who won the 2010 Miss Basketball award. They join Fargo North's Tyler Koenig and Carissa Jahner as the only classmates winning the award in the same season. Koenig and Jahner won in 2003.

Mauer easily will become the highest-paid catcher, surpassing the $13.1 million Jorge Posada earns annually under a $52.4 million, four-year contract with the Yankees that runs through 2011.

Last year, after missing the first month of the season with a back injury, Mauer hit .365 with 28 home runs and 96 RBIs to help the Twins win the AL Central division.

"Overall the athletes had a great day," said assistant coach Deb Beilke. "After practicing for three weeks it was fun to get out and see what they could do in competition. If they continue to hard work and dedicate themselves to their events, they will continue to see success."

Up next: The Hi-Liners are in action again March 27 when the team travels to NDSU for the State Class B Indoor Track & Field Meet.
