

Michigan State alone atop Big Ten

By NOAH TRISTER
AP Sports Writer

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Back on the sideline a month after a mild heart attack, Mark Dantonio stayed calm, his facial expression to a rely changing as Michigan State's undefeated season began to slip away.

The Spartans trailed by 17 in the first half and 10 in the fourth quarter. Their coach never panicked.

"I think you can't get too emotionally down," Dantonio said. "You certainly have to play every play. It was a very close football game. I've got to keep my pulse under control, I guess."

Dantonio's team didn't make things easy Saturday, but in the end, his determined confidence was justified. Michigan State rallied for a 35-27 win over Northwestern and is alone atop the Big Ten with four games remaining.

The Spartans (8-0, 4-0) moved up three spots to No. 5 in Sunday's AP poll and are also No. 5 in the BCS standings. They'll play what appears to be their toughest remaining regular season game Saturday at No. 18 Iowa.

to get their best coming out," Michigan State's B.J. Cunningham said. "They came out hard, 17-0, and we had to just come out in the second half and just put it to them, start throwing the ball around, running hard and playing with poise and taking it play by play."

The Spartans began their final comeback with a fake punt early in the fourth quarter on a play called "mousetrap" — their second big special teams gadget of the season. A fake field goal called "Little Giants" beat Notre Dame in overtime.

The fake punt worked for a first down, and Michigan State was in the end zone moments later, pulling within three.

A Northwestern field goal made it 27-21, but the Spartans finally took the lead when Cousins directed an 11-play, 88-yard drive that ended with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Cunningham, who made an acrobatic catch in the end zone.

Cousins is in his second season as the starter. The Spartans went 6-7 last season.

"We're winning a lot of close games because our quarterback play is very, very high," Dantonio said. "I think he believes in himself. I think our players believe in him, our coaches believe in him."

Already, comparisons are being made between this team and Ohio State's 2002 team that went undefeated. Dantonio was an assistant for the Buckeyes that season, when they won their last three regular season games by a combined 16 points before stunning Miami to win the national title.

"We found out how to win close games," Dantonio said. "That's what's happening to our football team right now. We're making plays down the stretch. I think that speaks to our players' leadership on the football field."

Michigan State has been fighting some form of adversity for most of the season. After a dramatic win over Notre Dame in September, Dantonio was hospitalized because of a heart attack, and he later had a blood clot in his leg. Dantonio missed two games, then coached from a box high above the field.

Saturday was his return to the sideline, and it went poorly at first.

Northwestern went ahead 17-0 in the second quarter and still led 24-14 in the fourth.

Review of Private Railroad Crossing Application
Case No. RR-10-26
NOTICE OF HEARING
October 20, 2010
On May 18, 2010, the North Dakota Public Service Commission issued an Order stating that the Fraine Barracks railroad crossing in Bismarck, ND, would be a private crossing after certain modifications were made to the crossing. The Order also stated that audible devices warning of a train's approach should not be sounded at this crossing after the specified modifications to this crossing have been made, unless an exception under North Dakota Century Code Section 49-11-21 applies. The Commission is reopening the record in this case to incorporate relevant evidence regarding the crossing arising subsequent to May 18, 2010. A public hearing on this case is scheduled to begin November 29, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. in the Public Service Commission Hearing Room, 12th Floor, State Capitol, 600 E Boulevard Ave, Bismarck, North Dakota. The issues to be considered are:
1. What modifications have been made to the Fraine Barracks crossing?
2. Whether modifications made to the Fraine Barracks crossing are sufficient to

GOLF ROUNDUP

Shriners Hospital

LAS VEGAS (AP) — In a swift and shocking finish, Jonathan Byrd won a three-man playoff Sunday with a hole-in-one on the fourth extra hole in the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospital Open.

Moments earlier, Byrd stood on the 18th green with Martin Laird and Cameron Percy as they discussed whether there was enough light to continue. They agreed to play one more hole — the 204-yard 17th at the TPC Summerlin.

And the playoff essentially ended with one swing.

It was too dark for Byrd to see his ball land about 10 feet short of the flag and roll into the cup, and even the cheers from a smattering of fans around the green weren't convincing.

Almost as stunning was that Byrd remained in the playoff. On the third playoff hole, the par-4 18th, Byrd's approach tumbled over the green and was one hop away from going into the water. Instead, it settled in a clump of grass, he chipped up to 7 feet and made the par putt just to stay alive.

One swing later, he only had to wait for Laird and Percy to hit their shots — and they both hit into the water — to come up with his first win of the year.

Byrd was No. 117 on the money list going into Las Vegas, and his fourth career victory gives him a two-year exemption. He closed with a 68, and he had to watch four times — once in regulation, three times in a playoff — as Laird stood over a birdie putt with a chance to win. That sequence started in regulation, when Laird had a 30-foot birdie try. Laird, the defending champion, shot 69.

Percy, the Australian rookie who needed to win to keep his job on the PGA Tour, earlier holed a 15-foot birdie putt on the last hole for a 67 that allowed him to get into the playoff. They finished at 21-under 263.

Administrastaff Small Business Classic

THE WOODLANDS, Texas (AP) — Fred Couples left Corey Pavin and everybody else way behind in the Administrastaff Small Business Classic, shooting a 9-under 63 for a seven-stroke victory.

Two strokes behind Pavin after 10 holes in the final round, the 50-year-old Couples played the final eight in 7 under, making an eagle — his second of the round — and five birdies.

The former University of Houston star had only 24 putts in the final round. He finished at 17-under 199 on The Woodlands Country Club course and earned $255,000 for his fourth Champions Tour victory of the year.

Mark Wiebe (71) was second, Dan Forsman (66) and Brad Bryant (66) followed at 9 under, and Pavin (74) and John Cook (67) tied for fifth at 8 under.

Sime Darby LPGA Malaysia

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Jimin Kang won the Sime Darby LPGA Malaysia for her second LPGA Tour title, beating Juli Inkster by a stroke when the 50-year-old Hall of Famer bogeyed the final hole.

Kang, the 30-year-old South Korean player who went to high school in Edmonds, Wash., and starred at Arizona State, birdied the par-4 18th for a 6-under 65 and a 9-under total at Kuala Lumpur Golf and Country Club.

Inkster birdied Nos. 15-17 to take the lead, but couldn't hold on in her bid to break the LPGA Tour age record of 46 years, 8 months set by Beth Daniel in the 2003 Canadian Women's Open.

Inkster finished with her second straight 67. Sweden's Maria Hjorth (71) and Japan's Mika Miyazato (69) tied for third at 6 under. Kang also won the 2005 LPGA Corning Classic.

Castello Masters

CASTELLON, Spain (AP) — Italy's Matteo Manassero became the youngest champion in PGA European Tour history, winning the Castello Masters at 17 years, 188 days.

Manassero closed with a 4-under 67 for a four-stroke victory over Spain's Ignacio Garrido. Manassero broke the record of 18 years, 133 days set by Danny Lee in the 2008 Johnnie Walker Championship.
