SOLDIER: Death comes just short of 20th birthday

FROM 1

Heather Cooper were notified Monday night. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Keenan Cooper would have celebrated his 20th birthday next week and was slated to complete his first tour of duty in Afghanistan next month, Adams said.

"He was just about ready to come home," Adams said.

Cooper was engaged to April Travis and the couple planned to marry in October, Adams said.

The lifelong Wahpeton resident had returned to his hometown last month for a visit.

"He was in good spirits," Adams said. "He was quite happy to see his fiancée and seemed happy to be in church. He was doing really well."

Cooper's parents and his fiancée were scheduled to travel to be Dover Air Force Base in Delaware when his body is returned this week, Adams said.

"He knew when he was in fourth grade that he would be in the Army someday," Adams said.

"When he made up his mind to do something, he did it."

Cooper, a 2008 graduate of Wahpeton High School, was friendly and soft-spoken, Adams said.

"He was a man of few words but if you caught him at the right time, he could be as funny as possible," Adams said.

As of July 5, 2010, 16 U.S. service members from North Dakota or serving with North Dakota military units have been reported killed while on duty in Iraq. Five others were killed in Afghanistan.

Warm, dry weather aids crops in ND

Associated Press

FARGO — Warm, dry weather over the past week has boosted the development of crops in North Dakota.

The Agriculture Department says in its weekly crop and weather report that small grain crops are developing about on an average pace, and the condition of the crops is mostly good to excellent.

All other crops are near or ahead of the average in development, with the exception of flaxseed.

OVERVIEW MAP

LEGION: Valley City goes to Great Bend on Thursday

FROM 10

strike out to end the game.

Tony Van Dyke took the loss, giving up six runs — four earned — in 5 2/3 innings on the mound. Justesen pitched 1 1/3 innings in relief.

Egan and Stearns both had three hits, and Klingenberg and Justesen each collected two hits. The section loss drops Valley City to 3-4 in Section 1 play. Wahpeton improves to 5-4 in Section 1.

In the non-section game, Valley City went up 6-3 with five runs in the bottom of the second, but Wahpeton scored four each in the fourth and fifth innings for a 11-6 lead entering the bottom of the fifth. A two-run triple by Ben Sorenson and an RBI single by Wayne Engelhard cut the deficit to 11-9 with one out, but the rally faltered as Valley City fell 11-9.

Up next: Valley City (10-14, 3-4 Section 1) goes to Great Bend on Thursday.

Engelhard, Nelson-Olstad, Egan and Stearns will play tonight in the Section 1 All Star game in Enderlin. Home run derby starts at 5:30 p.m. with the game to follow at about 7 p.m.
