Comments:

A hearing is scheduled for May 17, 2011, at 11:30 in the referenced matter. We are not aware of any objections or other issues and we anticipate the hearing will be very brief. Consequently, to conserve resources, I respectfully request your permission to attend the hearing via phone. Travel to and from Langdon will be very time consuming and add to the Commission's expenses for administering the insolvency. We believe, subject to the Court's approval, that attending via phone would be a better use of the Commission's limited resources.

Thank you for your favorable consideration of my request and please call if you have any questions.
