SURREY HOME RULE CHARTER (Proposed)

Article 1 Incorporation The inhabitants of the City of Surrey within the corporate limits as now established or as established later in the manner provided by law, shall continue to be a municipal body politic and corporate in perpetuity, under the name of the "City of Surrey".

Article 2 Governing Body to Exercise Powers

Subject to the limitations imposed by the state constitution, state law, and this charter, all powers of the city shall be vested in the elected city governing body. The elected city governing body shall enact local ordinances, adopt budgets, determine policies, and prescribe the functions of government to be performed under this charter by the city.

Article 3 Powers of the City

The city shall have all powers grant to municipal corporations by the constitution and laws of this state and by this charter, together with all of the implied powers necessary to carry into execution all powers granted.

This charter, and the ordinances made pursuant thereto, shall supercede within the territorial limits and other jurisdiction of the city any law of the state in conflict therewith.

1. To acquire, hold, operate and dispose of property within or without the corporate limits, and exercise the right of eminent domain for such purposes.

2. To control its finances and fiscal affairs; to appropriate money for its purposes, and make payment of its debts and expenses; to levy and collect taxes, excises, fees, charges, and special assessments for benefits conferred by its public and proprietary functions, activities, operations, undertakings, and improvements; to contract debts, borrow money, issue bonds, warrants, and other evidences of indebtedness; to establish charges for any city or other services, and to establish debt and mill levy limitations. All property must be assessed in a uniform manner as prescribed by the state board of equalization and the state supervisor of assessments and all taxable property must be taxed by the city at the same rate unless otherwise provided by law.

3. To fix the fees, number, terms, conditions, duration, and manner of issuing and revoking licenses in the exercise of its governmental police powers.

4. To provide for city officers, agencies, and employees, their selection, terms, powers, duties, qualifications, and compensation. To provide for change, selection, or creation of its form and structure of government including its governing body, executive officer, and city officers.

5. To provide for city courts, their jurisdiction and powers over ordinance violations, duties, administration, and the selection, qualifications, and compensation of their officers; however, the right of appeal from judgment of such courts shall not be in any way affected.

6. To provide for all matters pertaining to city elections, except as to qualifications of electors.

7. To provide for the adoption, amendment, and repeal of ordinances, resolutions, and regulations to carry out its governmental and proprietary powers and to provide for public health, safety, morals, and welfare, and penalties for a violation thereof.

8. To lay out or vacate streets, alleys, and public grounds, and to provide for the use, operation, and regulation thereof.

9. To define offenses against private persons and property and the public health, safety, morals, and welfare, and provide penalties for violations thereof.

10. To engage in any utility, business, or enterprise permitted by the constitution or not prohibited by statute or to grant and regulate franchises therefore to a private person, firm, corporation, or limited liability company.

11. To provide for zoning, planning, and subdivision of public or private property within in the city limits; to provide for such zoning, planning, and subdivision of public or private property outside the city limits as may be permitted by state law.

12. To levy and collect franchise and license taxes for revenue purposes.

13. To exercise in the conduct of its affairs all powers usually exercised by a corporation.

14. To fix the boundary limits of said city and the annexation and deannexation of territory adjacent to said city except that such power shall be subject to, and shall conform with the state law made and provided.

15. To contract with and receive grants from any other governmental entity or agency, with respect to any local, state, or federal program, project, or works.

16. To impose registration fees on motor vehicles, or sales, gross receipts and use taxes in addition to any other taxes imposed by law. Sales, gross receipts and use taxes must conform in all respects with regard to the taxable or exempt status of items under chapters 57-39.2, 57-39.5, 57-39.6 and 57-40.2 of the North Dakota Century Code and may not be imposed at multiple rates with the exception of sales of electricity, piped natural or artificial gas, or other heating fuels delivered by the seller or the retail sale or transfer of motor vehicles, aircraft, watercraft, modular homes, manufactured homes, or mobile homes.

It is intended that the status of this state, so far as applicable, shall continue to apply to this city, except as superseded by this charter or by ordinance passed pursuant to this charter. In addition to the powers enumerated herein, implied hereby, or appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the city shall have and may exercise all powers under the constitution and laws of this state applicable generally to all cities.

Article 4 Referendum and Initiative

The voters of the city shall have the power to refer and initiate ordinances or resolutions, except that the power of initiative and referendum shall not extend to the annual appropriation ordinances, nor to those ordinances implementing public projects upon which an election has previously been held, or special improvement projects under which the law provides for protest procedures.

Section 2: Initiative petitions must be signed by qualified voters of the city equal to at least 15 percent of the total votes cast in the city at the most recent presidential election.

Section 3: Referendum petitions must be signed by qualified voters of the city equal to at least 30 percent of the total votes cast in the city at the most recent presidential election.

Section 4: Each petition, whether for initiating or referring an ordinance or resolution, shall contain or have attached thereto throughout their circulation the full text of the ordinance or resolution proposed or referred. In addition, each petition shall list the names and addresses of the three electors who shall constitute the "Committee for the Petitioners" who shall represent and act for the petitioners. Each petition shall also contain an affidavit signed by the circulator of that petition affirming that the signors of the petition are believed by the circulator to be qualified voters of the city.

Section 5: Referendum petitions for ordinances must be filed with the City Auditor within 30 days after the second reading of the ordinance referred. Referendum petitions for resolutions must be filed with the City Auditor within 30 days after the passage of the resolution referred.

Section 6: The City Auditor shall pass upon the sufficiency of each petition and shall have 20 days after the petition is filed to certify as to its sufficiency. A petition shall be deemed sufficient if the City Auditor has not certified to the contrary within the 20 day period. If the City Auditor finds the petition insufficient, the City Auditor shall notify the "Committee for the Petitioners", specifying the insufficiencies, and allow seven days for correction or amendment, and, in the case of a petition for initiating an ordinance only, for additional signatures within the seven day period.

Section 7: Upon proper filing of a referendum petition, the ordinance or resolution referred, except emergency ordinances as defined in this section, shall be suspended. Such suspension shall terminate:

(1) If the petitions are determined to be insufficient and not corrected or amended as provided in section 6 of this article; or

(2) The petitions are withdrawn by the "Committee for the Petitioners", as provided in section 10 of this article; or

(3) The governing body of the city repeals the ordinance or resolution. An "emergency ordinance" is an ordinance designated as an emergency ordinance by the city governing body and passed by a vote of the city governing body.

Section 8: Upon the final determination of the sufficiency of the petitions for initiating an ordinance or resolution the city governing body shall have 60 days in which to adopt the proposed ordinance or resolution. If the city governing body fails to adopt an ordinance or resolution, without any change in the substance from that proposed, within the 60 day time period, the city governing body shall submit the ordinance or resolution to the voters of the city at an election within 180 days after the final determination of the sufficiency of the petitions. If no regular city election is to be held within that time period, the city governing body shall provide for a special election. Copies of the ordinance or resolution shall be available at the office of the City Auditor at least 10 days prior to the election. The ballot shall fairly state a summary of the ordinance or resolution referred, and copies of the ordinance or resolution shall be available at the polling places.

Section 9: Upon the final determination of the sufficiency of the petitions of referendum, the city governing body shall cause an election on the referendum to be held within 90 days. The election shall be held at a regular city election, if one is scheduled within that time period, or at a special election called by the city governing body. Copies of the ordinance or resolution shall be available at the office of the City Auditor at least 10 days prior to the election. The ballot shall fairly state a summary of the ordinance or resolution referred, and copies of the ordinance or resolution shall be available at the polling places.

Section 10: An initiative or referred referendum petition may be withdrawn at any time prior to the scheduling of the election by the city governing body upon the filing of a request for withdrawal signed by all of the members of the "Committee for the Petitioners".

Section 11: If a majority of electors voting on an initiated ordinance or resolution vote in its favor, it shall be considered adopted upon certification of election results and shall stand the same as if adopted by the city governing body. If a majority of electors voting on a referred ordinance or resolution vote against it, the ordinance or resolution shall be considered repealed upon certification of election results.

Section 12: The governing body may not repeal or make any material amendments to the initiated ordinance or resolution or to an ordinance or resolution referred and upheld by a vote of the people except by a vote of the members thereof for five years after the date of the election adopting such ordinance or resolution, or by a majority vote of the people; thereafter such an ordinance or resolution may be repealed or amended the same as any other ordinance or resolution.

Section 13: This article shall be self-executing and all of its provisions treated as mandatory. Ordinances or resolutions may be enacted to facilitate its operation, but no ordinance or resolution shall be enacted to hamper, restrict, or impair the exercise of the rights reserved to the people.

Section 14: Rights of officers and employees preserved. Nothing in this charter, except as specifically provided, shall affect or impair the rights or privileges of officers or employees of the city or of any office, department, or agency existing at the time when this charter takes effect.

Section 15: Continuation of present offices, departments, or agencies.

Section 16: Any office, department, or agency existing at the time this charter takes effect shall continue to exercise its regular powers and duties until such office, department, or agency is changed or abolished by the city governing body. Any powers and duties established for any office, department, or agency by the laws of the state shall, if such office, department, or agency is abolished under the authority of this charter, be exercised by the office, department, or agency designated by the city governing body.

Section 17: Continuation of appointive boards, authorities, and commissions. All appointive boards, authorities, and commissions existing at the time this charter takes effect shall continue to exercise such powers and duties as were granted them until such boards, authorities, and commissions are changed or abolished by the city governing body.

Section 18: Continuation of contracts. All contracts entered into by the city, or for its benefit, prior to the taking effect of this charter, shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 19: Pending actions and proceedings. The adoption of this charter shall not affect any pending action or proceeding, civil or criminal, when it takes full effect.

Section 20: Ordinance, resolutions and regulations to remain in force. All ordinances, resolutions and regulations of the city in force at the time this charter takes effect, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, shall continue in force until they are amended or repealed.

Section 21: Inauguration of government under this charter. If a majority of the qualified electors of the city voting on the question, vote to ratify this charter, the provisions of this charter shall go into effect upon the filing of the charter by the city governing body with the secretary of state and the city auditor.

Section 22: Changing the Form of City Government. Changes in the form of city government may be proposed and put into effect in the manner provided by the North Dakota Century Code as amended.

Section 23: Construction. The powers of the city under this charter shall be construed liberally in favor of the city, and the specific mention of particular powers in this charter shall not be construed as limiting in any way the general powers of the city.

Section 24: Severability Clause. If any section or part of a section of this charter is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not affect the remainder of this charter, except to the extent that an entire section or part of a section may be inseparably connected in meaning and effect with the section or part of a section to which the holding directly applies.

Section 25: Method of Amendment or Repeal. This charter may be amended or repealed as provided by Section 40-05.1-07 of the North Dakota Century Code as amended. (August 31, 2010)
