Proposed Working Preference

The Grand Forks Housing Authority invites public comment on the proposed working preference. In order to ensure that rental housing assistance meets the needs of the area, the Grand Forks Housing Authority intends to make a change to its Administrative Plans which will establish a "working preference" for applicants for rental assistance through the Housing Choice Voucher program.

This waiting list preference will be available to families where the head of household, spouse, or sole member, is employed in the local residency preference area at least ten hours per week, earning no less than the current minimum hourly wage; or, families where the head and spouse, or sole member is age 62 or older, or is a person with a verified disability.

Verification of employment, age, or disability will be required upon application and selection for families to qualify for a working preference. Verification requirements will be included in the application for housing assistance once the preference is adopted. Applicants currently on the waiting list will be notified regarding options for receiving this preference prior to any selections utilizing the preference.

The comment period opened May 21, 2011 and written comments will be accepted until Friday, July 1, 2011. A copy of the proposed preference may be viewed at the Grand Forks Housing Authority. Alternative formats or special accommodations are available for persons with disabilities upon request.
Requests for information and written comments should be sent to:
