

mann. They moved several times with Mike's work, finally settling in Thief River Falls in 1983.

Roberta spent much of her time volunteering. You would often find her at the Senior Center doing whatever she could; she was a dedicated Boy Scout supporter and den mother; and she also took in stray animals until they were adopted for the Humane Society. Roberta also enjoyed knitting, crocheting, reading, and most recently found the love for hunting.

Roberta is survived by her husband, Michael Baumann, Thief River Falls; son, Michael Sean (Sarah) Bauman and granddaughter, Madeline Baumann, Basehar, Kansas; two sisters, Joanne Brennan, McVile and Dianne (Richard) Urvand, McVile; a brother, Norris (Corrina) Olson, McVile; an uncle, Karl Berg, Bismarck; several nieces, nephews, and cousins; and special niece and nephews, Dominik, Morea and Brandon.

Roberta was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Mary Louise and Joyce Aaser; and father-in-law and mother-in-law, Harold and Leila Baumann.

The Stanley - Iverson Funeral Home, McVile, was in charge of arrangements.

There will be crafts, games, door prizes, roller skating and lots of fun. Free lunch will be provided. Each child will receive a special gift just for attending.

Bring your friends and have lots of fun.
