pair serve time in for rafting offense

LE, Ohio (AP) — A couple found themselves in trouble when their ankles were caught in flood-swollen river channels and lying on their backs. They pleaded guilty to misdemeanor misconduct during an emergency. Searchers spent hours looking for them last month after they were spotted on the Grand River. They made it to land but lied to an official about being in the water. They chose the pool punishment and community service over 60 days in jail. Nash tells The News-Herald in Willoughby they've learned their lesson.

Ohio (AP) — A judge gave defendants what he considered probation sentences. County Common Pleas Judge Cook in Toledo has ordered two defendants to write five-page essays including teen violence and head injuries. The Blade news- is to get defendants why what they did how it hurt others.

Judge gives defendants work assignments

Ohio (AP) — A judge gave defendants what he considered probation sentences. County Common Pleas Judge Cook in Toledo has ordered two defendants to write five-page essays including teen violence and head injuries. The Blade news- is to get defendants why what they did how it hurt others.

The Blade reports Cook has told as many as 30 people to write papers since she took the bench in 2007. She reads all of them and says it seems that the number of writers who've later returned to her court for serious probation violations has been low. Lawyer Richard Hasbrook agrees with that assessment. He's the public defender in Cook's courtroom.

Councilman spills food

ROBBINS, Ga. (AP) — City councilman in Macon was caught with food during an argument over a downtown development authority.

the downtown development authority. The councilman told WMAZ-TV that it was an accident and he did nothing wrong. Robbins told the Telegraph of Macon that the councilman lifted up his placemat, and the food and drinks spilled all over him. Authorities in the central Georgia town have referred the case to a judge. No one has been arrested.

Robbins on Monday argued an argument over a downtown development authority.

Man puts all 57 years online

AP) — Good news for those who have claimed they bought the magazine for the articles, the online service also offers a way to look at the works of such writers as John Updike, Jack Kerouac, Kurt Vonnegut, Hunter S. Thompson and Norman Mailer just by typing in their names.

Brazil police say thief stole woman's long hair

SAO PAULO (AP) — Brazilian police say a thief cut off and stole a woman's long hair while she waited at a bus stop.

woman was waiting for a bus in the central city of Goiania when the man used a knife-like weapon to cut the hair, which reached past her waist. She said she thought the man was going to steal her purse so she turned her back to him. Silva said he'd never seen a theft like it in 20 years. He said the 24-year-old woman reported the case to police because she is evangelical and had to explain to her pastor why her hair wasn't long anymore.

Police say the hair was virgin, meaning it had not been chemically treated, and will probably be sold for the production of wigs.

Inspector Jose Carlos Bezerra da Silva said Friday to Globo TV's G1 website that the

Kirstie Alley loses 38 inches

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When Kirstie Alley performs on the "Dancing With the Stars" season finale, she'll do it in a much smaller dress than the one she wore on the season premiere.

The costume Alley wore for her "Dancing" debut had to be taken in 38 inches for her to wear it again Tuesday for the show's closing episode. Alley will reprise her opening-night dance, the cha-cha, in her original costume.

The 60-year-old actress has been noticeably shrinking week after week.

PUBLIC NOTICES

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA
PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
NOTICE
TELECOMMUNICATIONS RELAY
SERVICE SURCHARGE
May 18, 2011

On April 21, 1993, Governor Edward T. Schafer approved House Bill No. 1028 that established a program to provide specialized telecommunications services and equipment to the communications impaired. The relay services program is funded by an access line surcharge paid by the customers of local exchange companies and radio communications service providers.

The relay services program is administered by the Information Technology Department of the State of North Dakota. Before June 1 of each year, the Public Service Commission calculates the amount of the surcharge based on cost data and other information provided by the Information Technology Department.

The Commission has calculated the 2011-2012 surcharge to be included in bills to customers is $.04 per access line per month.
