waltz and polka to that amazing Tibor music. This brought back memories of my father teaching me to dance to that same music.

Another memory which has come up three times in the last two weeks – all from different people, is the words to the Hamm's Beer commercial.

The original jingle, with lyrics by Nelle Richmond Eberhart and music by Charles Wakefield Cadman, was derived from a 1909 art song entitled "From the Land of Sky Blue Water". It was first used on radio and later extended to television.

It started with the beating tom-tom drums, after which a chorus intoned:

From the land of sky blue waters, from the land of pines' lofty balsams, comes the beer refreshing, Hamm's the beer refreshing - HAMMS! (As a side note: if you would like to see this old commercial again, it is available for viewing on YouTube.)

There, I have done my homework and now the rest of you can have this little jingle running through your heads too!

Dakota Hill News

Sunday, we had Bible study for the residents who chose not to go to church. We looked at pictures of Medora, the Enchanted Highway, dinosaur museum, Fort Lincoln and Fort Mandan.

Monday afternoon, Janice Vetter, Violet Schock, Evelyn Eisenbarth, and Ray Vetter shared devotions and musical selections. Thank you for spending time with the residents. After supper, we played bingo.

Tuesday morning, we did nail care and visited. In the afternoon, Anna Iszler's granddaughter and great-granddaughters entertained us by playing the keyboard and singing for our ladies' tea. Thank you for doing this, Renae.

Wednesday morning, we played Wii game. In the afternoon, Pastor Hazel provided worship service.

Thursday morning, we played word games and some of the residents went outside to check on the flowers and garden. In the afternoon, we had a sing-along with Martha Jacobs, Bonnie Zeller, Wilbur Link, Evelyn Link and Evelyn Bentz. Thank you.

Friday morning was hair care. Everyone looked their best when Patsy Hertz, Jackie Stewart and Bruce LeBeau came to entertain us in the afternoon.

Saturday afternoon, we played bingo.
