The Public Service Commission, Advocacy Staff, (Advocacy Staff) has moved the Public Service Commission (Commission) for Default Judgment against Shores Companies, Inc. pursuant to N.D.C.C. § 28-32-30, N.D. Admin Rule 69-02 and Rule 55 of the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.

It appears from the Motion for Default and record and Affidavit of Christopher Marohl that Shores Companies, Inc. (Shores) is in default as of October 3, 2012 for failing to file an Answer within 20 days after the formal complaint and notice of hearing was mailed via certified mail to Shores on September 13, 2012, by the Commission.

ORDER

THEREFORE on the Motion of Commission Advocacy Staff's counsel, Shores is in default concerning this matter.

The facts before the Commission indicate that Shores did violate North Dakota Century Code Chapter 49-23 by failing to comply with the One Call procedures as outlined in North Dakota Century Code § 49-23-04, et. seq., as alleged in Advocacy Staff's August 23, 2012 formal complaint and supporting documentation.

Pursuant to N.D.C.C. § 28-32-30(2), Shores has seven days to contest to vacate this default order, or it becomes final.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent, Shores Companies, Inc., 14620 Berg Rd NW Evansville, MN 56326, shall deposit the penal sum of $2,000 with the Commission, if the order is not contested within seven days of the date of issuance.
