Dear Mr. Jensen:

I write in response to your letter, dated January 25, 2013, about the above-captioned matter. Your letter indicates the PSC did not receive a deferred payment contract from either Mr. Hase or Anderson Seed Co., Inc.

I have enclosed a copy of the letter and contracts that were provided to the Public Service Commission by Mr. Hase in February 2012. I provided this information once again in a letter to Ms. Jeffcoat-Sacco in April 2012. Thus, based upon this information, I am not sure why the PSC would claim it has not received any contract from Mr. Hase.

Please advise whether this was a simple oversight or what additional information the PSC requires from Mr. Hase. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

KENNELLY & O'KEEFFE, LTD

Dear Sirs:

Re: Anderson Seed Co, Inc. from Selz, ND and Mentor, MN.

I'm a sunflower producer from Martin, ND who delivered sunflowers to both the Selz and Mentor plants on contracts from early 2011. I signed contracts for both con-oil and dehull sunflowers and returned the contracts to Anderson but never received a copy signed by them back. Sunflowers that I delivered to them were priced at the contract price as shown on the invoices attached.

I was at Anderson Seed in Mentor on February 13, 2012 and they verified that I was owed for 5 loads and did pay me for the smallest load $8,747.70 as shown on the attached assembly sheet and that I was owed $46,627.20 for the remaining 4 loads. Ron Anderson told me that they were in process of refinancing their business and would know by 2-15-2012 and be able to pay me by 2-20-2012.

All loads were delivered in November/December 2011 and I notified the company by phone in December that I wanted the income deferred to 2012 and they were going to send out a deferred sales contract like they had done in past. I never received the deferred sales contract from them and attempts to get money in January/February were always delayed until the personal visit when I received the $8700 check.

Now with news of their sale to another company has me concerned about getting the money that I'm owed and request that the Commission investigate this company. Also notify me of any additional information that might be needed to file a claim with their bond or with the Indemnity fund for my loss.

Sincerely,

Tim Hase
