

should be able to catch up pretty easily."

Both Coyle and Oksendahl said the offense has made major strides early thanks to the play of the team's offensive line.

The line is led by North Dakota State recruits Jack Plankers of Kindred and Landon Lechler of Beach, as well as University of North Dakota-bound Conrad Schwarzkopf of Bismarck Century.

Plankers (6-foot-7, 290 pounds) and Lechler (6-7, 240) earned praise at Monday afternoon's practice while making lanes for all-state running backs Seth after originally being slated to play at receiver.

North Dakota had just three receivers doing workouts Monday — Mott-Regent's Chad Mosbrucker, Mandan's Aaron Janz and Bismarck High's Devin Schirado.

Still, Oksendahl doesn't think the position will be much of an issue by Saturday. "We have probably seven receivers we can go to," he said. "Both our tight ends are good receivers that will split out and become wideouts for us. We're in good shape that way."

Fridley said. "I look forward to working with those people. They have all the same interests, which is to build a successful program. Everybody wants to be successful in their own sport. What intrigues me is I didates to receive interviews for the position, said Vince Reep, DPS assistant superintendent.

The others were Jason Schwarz, the head girls basketball coach at Kenmare, and Pete Remboldt, the principal of Ashby (Minn.) Public Schools.

The school, as a part of the Heart River cooperative agreement with neighboring Belfield,
