...teacher and taught school in various rural schools.

Cecelia married Sam Simnioniw on June 5, 1947 at St. Bernard's Catholic Church. Together they farmed, ranched, and raised their family in the Gorham area, eventually moving to and taking over Sam's parents place. Cecelia and Sam moved to a home north of Belfield, continuing to farm and ranch until retiring in 1992. In the mid 1990's they moved into Belfield and Cecelia remained there until August 17, 2006 when she became a resident of the St. Luke's Home.

Cecelia was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Christian Mothers, and Catholic Daughters. Cecelia enjoyed reading, playing cards, fishing, gardening, and bingo. But her most enjoyable times were those she spent with her children and their families. Her kindness, gentle strength, and

...a generous and giving person and had the patience of a saint. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Cecelia is survived by 12 children, Bob, Bismarck, Pat Eckes, Dickinson, Connie (Mike) Kasian, Belfield, Mary (Dale) Schaff, Williston, Les (Tammy), South Heart, Ed (Sandra), South Heart, Kathy (Al) Hecker, Dickinson, Karla (Dennis) Schaff, Belfield, Erv (Lene), Westminster, Colo., Wayne (Carol), Minneapolis, Minn., Bill (Greta), Denver, Colo., and Ernie (Dixie), Dickinson; 33 grandchildren; 45 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Gordon Boltz and Bob Boltz, and one sister Bonnie (Pete) Hecker.

Cecelia was preceded in death by her husband, Sam; her parents; one son, Bruce Simnioniw, one granddaughter, Lisa Schaff, one son-in-law, Jack Eckes, eight brothers and four sisters.

...funding for key rural energy programs.

"We are spending almost a billion dollars every day importing foreign energy. We should instead be investing that money in developing new ways to produce energy right here at home," Senator Conrad said.

The Senator has also noted that he will continue to fight to improve certain elements of the farm safety net to ensure North Dakota producers - especially wheat and barley producers - are treated fairly.

...represent about 1/3 of 1 percent of total federal spending," Senator Conrad said.

"The nation's agricultural policy benefits every consumer in this country.

As a share of disposable income, Americans have the cheapest food in the history of the world."

While noting the tremendous success of the 2008 Farm Bill he helped write, Senator Conrad pointed to important reforms in the 2012 version of the bill, including elimi-
