

FREDERICK. The girls were Sharon Thorson from Oregon and Eloise Obman from Iowa and were hosted by the Frederick Area Historical Society, who incidentally own the former Fylpaa store building. Accompanying them was an 89-year old cousin Berg-hot Ringdal from Norway.

Much reminiscing, questioning and discussion took place on that Monday morning. Eloise and her brother are planning to return in July.

The Frederick Area Historical Society maintains the building as a museum and information center for the history of the area. They will be open on Saturday June 16th during the an-which will be held June 15-17 in Frederick. Finn Fest celebrates the Finnish heritage of the community.
