Dave,
Staff intends to comply with its agreement to file its testimony by the end of today, Case No. PU-12-813, with the exception of Ms. Cardwell's testimony. Her testimony will be filed by the end of Monday, July 22. Ms. Cardwell's testimony will not have any adjustments to the rate increase request but instead will focus on the management of the company and specifically its continual spending pattern and rate increase requests. The commission is going to want to hear about this so NSP will need to prepare for that discussion whether or not Sara files testimony today or on Monday. If this approach causes NSP any problems or difficulties, please advise. Thanks. Mike
