Shelly,

Per our last conversations about the certification that Montana, Dakota Scale Service was to have performed on our scale. I unfortunately was misled by my home office that the certification was done February 7, 2014 based on billing invoices. The February invoice when pulled, was for work that was done November of 2013. Therefore to all intents & purposes the 1st quarter of 2014 no certification was performed on the scale. This is solely my lack of follow-up with Montana, Dakota Scale Service after contracting them to perform our quarterly certifications in a timely manner.

I apologize about creating the misunderstanding in this matter. I have attached our current certification performed 9-30-14.

Thank You, for your attention to this matter, I appreciate all your help.
