

in Legion Baseball action

ly Bachmeier's stellar performance of five innings with one hit, runs and 10 strikeouts. The third sectional game of the season was against New Rockford on July 1. Harvey was victorious, 11-1, with the pitching of Landon Littlefield and Mark Nyhus. The second game of the evening against New Rockford was a battle that ended with New Rockford winning, 2-1, in the bottom of the 11th. Harvey hosted Velva June on July 2, earning a win with a score of 11-1, with impressive pitching by Stan Schmidt, going 7 innings with three hits, one walk and 13 strikeouts. Harvey lost the second game, 0-2. The American Legion team played non-sectional games against Nelson County, losing 7-3, then beating Garrison-Max at 11-8 and 12-7, both "come behind" games. Harvey resumed sectional play against Bottineau with a win on July 3, 8-7. Mark Nyhus had a stick, hitting the first homerun of the season for the Harvey American Legion Team. In the second game, Bottineau bounced back and won 8-5 with Brady Bachmeier picking up the loss. Harvey then hosted a non-sectional "under the lights" game against Nelson County, winning 11-5 with solid performances on the mound from Shaun Kourajian and Mark Nyhus. Although non-sectional games don't count for tournament standings, they play an important role in improving baseball skills of the players. On July 2, the American Legion team was handed their first sectional loss of the season against Cando, losing 1-6, with Todd Selzler picking up the loss. Harvey bounced back in the second game, winning 4-3 behind the arms of Littlefield and Bachmeier. Nyhus scored the winning run in the bottom of the fifth. The batting average for the team this season is 0.378. Fans are encouraged to come to the baseball field and enjoy watching some good baseball!
