PART H – DESCRIPTION OF EVENT

Description of Event While installing the natural gas distribution system in the Meadows Subdivision in the City of Williston, state of North Dakota the contractor made contact with our facilities three separate times. The first time a natural gas service line was struck, and repaired on location at the time of contact. On July 19, 2013 while installing other utilities, the contractor made contact with a four inch main at the point where it tied in with a two inch main branch line, they also made contact with a service line. Montana-Dakota Utilities (MDU) were not made aware of this contact until 24 July, 2013. During this six day time frame Williston, ND received rainfall causing the natural gas main to become contaminated with dirt and water. This caused MDU to excavate and replace over thirty feet of four and two inch gas main line as well as repairing a damaged service line. When the system was tested, the third contact damage to a service line was found which took extensive investigation to find and repair.
