Weekly Construction Update

Week of 12/11/2015

1. Substation – Foundation Work

- Completed forming and concrete work on grounding transformers Pads.
- Completed excavation and concrete work on pier foundations.
- Substation foundation contractor demobilization.

This will be the last Sunflower Wind Project Weekly Construction Update for this year. The Sunflower Wind Project pre-winter scope of work is now complete and site crews will be demobilizing for the winter, and the project will be closed until early spring 2016. We will commence again with the Weekly Construction Update when the Sunflower Wind Project team re-mobilizing and work begins in early spring 2016.

See below for progress photos.
