Case No. GS-14-590

CONSENT ORDER

DATED this _____ day of _____ 2014

The North Dakota Public Service Commission (Commission) finds:

ONEOK Rockies Midstream, L.L.C. (ONEOK) is an Oklahoma Limited Liability Company with principal offices at 100 W 5th St, Tulsa, OK, 74103-4279.

Conestoga-Rovers & Associates (CRA) is a New York corporation with principal offices at 2055 Niagara Falls Blvd, #3, Niagara Falls, NY 14304-5702.

Stevens Drilling & Environmental Services, Inc. is a Minnesota corporation with principal offices at 6240 Hwy 12 W, Maple Plain, MN 55359.

On July 14, 2014, the Commission received a ND One-Call Complaint from CRA. The complaint alleged a violation by ONEOK of North Dakota Century Code chapter 49-23: One-Call Excavation Notice System.

Commission Advocacy Staff (Staff) conducted an investigation including communication with ONEOK, CRA, and North Dakota One Call (NDOC).

North Dakota Century Code section 49-23-04(3)(a) provides:

An operator, within forty-eight hours, or any extension of that period, after receiving an excavation notice from the center, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, unless otherwise agreed to between the excavator and operator, shall locate and mark or otherwise provide the approximate horizontal location of the underground facilities of the operator.

North Dakota Century Code section 28-32-22 provides:

Unless otherwise prohibited by specific statute or rule, informal disposition may be made of any adjudicative proceeding, or any part or issue thereof, by stipulation, settlement, waiver of hearing, consent order, default, alternative dispute resolution, or other informal disposition, subject to agency approval. Any administrative agency may adopt rules of practice or procedure for informal disposition if such rules do not substantially prejudice the rights of any party. Such rules may establish procedures for converting an administrative matter from one type of proceeding to another type of proceeding.

North Dakota Century Code section 49-07-01.1 provides:

Any person who violates any statute, commission order, or commission rule which applies to matters within the authority of the commission under chapters 8-08, 8-09, 8-10, 24-09, 32-25, and 51-05.1, titles 60 and 64, and title 49 except for chapters 49-22 and 49-23, shall, in addition to any other penalty provided, be subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed five thousand dollars. A violation occurring under chapter 49-23, in addition to any other penalty, is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars. The commission shall develop policies for the assessment of penalties under chapter 49-23 which will take into consideration the severity of damages and the conduct of the offender. The civil penalty may be compromised by the commission. The amount of the penalty when finally determined or agreed upon in compromise, if not paid, may be recovered in a civil action in the courts of this state.

North Dakota Administrative Code section 69-02-04-05 provides:

In any proceeding in which the commission is authorized to act after opportunity for hearing, opportunity is afforded by service of notice fixing a reasonable period of time within which any person desiring to be heard may file a protest or request for a hearing. If a protest or request for hearing is not filed within the time provided, the commission may dispose of the matter on the basis of the pleadings, other submittals, and the studies and recommendations of the staff. A party not requesting oral hearing in the party's pleading is deemed to have waived a hearing for the purpose of the decision, but not for the purpose of applying for rehearing with respect to the decision. If a person requests a hearing but does not show good cause, the commission may determine the matter without a hearing.

Investigation Summary

Based on its investigation, Staff determined that on June 20, 2014, Stevens Drilling & Environmental Services, Inc.(subcontractor for CRA) personnel provided an excavation notice to the NDOC Notification Center for work to begin on June 26, 2014 at 2625 feet south and 1500 feet west of the intersection of Hwy 23 and 31st St NW in McKenzie County. The NDOC Notification Center assigned locate ticket number 14085779 to the excavation notice. Under North Dakota Century Code section 49-23-04(3)(a), ONEOK was required to locate and mark or otherwise provide the approximate horizontal location of the underground facilities by June 24, 2014. Unless a 24 hour extension is requested by the operator, which would have extended the deadline to June 25, 2014.

Based on its investigation, Staff concluded that ONEOK performed the locate on June 26, 2014 at 4pm. There is no evidence showing that an extension of the notice period was requested by ONEOK.

Based on its investigation, Staff concluded that there was no agreement between ONEOK and Stevens Drilling & Environmental Services, Inc. under North Dakota Century Code section 49-23-04(3)(a) prior to excavation that would relieve ONEOK of its obligation to provide the locate markings within forty-eight hours of the NDOC notice.

Based on its investigation, Staff concluded that ONEOK violated North Dakota Century Code section 49-23-04(3)(a) by failing to provide the locate markings within forty-eight hours of the NDOC notice.
