MOTION TO EXTEND FILING TIME FOR REPLY BRIEF

Pursuant to Circuit Rule 28(e), appellants respectfully move this Court for a 21-day extension of time for filing their reply brief. The brief is currently due on December 20, 2017, and the proposed new due date is January 10, 2018. This motion is unopposed by appellees and intervenors.

An extension of time is supported by good cause. The parties have recently learned that an amicus curiae brief in support of appellees will be filed in this case. Appellants seek additional time to submit their reply brief to fully address the points and arguments raised in that brief. Additionally, a new attorney has joined counsel for appellants and will be taking a principal role in drafting the reply brief. A short extension of time is necessary for her to review the underlying materials and prepare the reply brief. Finally, in light of the impending federal holidays, a shorter extension would not be sufficient to address these concerns.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the time to file the reply brief should be extended by 21 days to and including January 10, 2018.
