"This grain is received, insured, and stored subject to the laws and rules of the state of North Dakota, the terms of this contract and the charges, and conditions stated herein and filed with the North Dakota Public Service Commission. Upon surrender of this receipt and payment or tender of all applicable charges, the amount, kind, and grade of grain identified in this receipt will be delivered to the person named above or the person's order as rapidly as due diligence, care, and prudence will permit. At the option of the holder of this receipt, the customarily shipped to, or at the place where received, upon the payment of any charges for receiving, handling, storage, and insurance and in case of terminal delivery, the payment in addition to the above of the regular freight charges on the gross amount called for by this ticket or in lieu thereof, a receipt issued by a bonded warehouse, or elevator company doing business at the terminal point. Nothing in this receipt requires the delivery of the identical grain specified herein, but an equal amount of grain of the same kind and grade must be delivered." (Sec.60-02-17, Amend. - ND Century Code)

"All storage contracts on grain in store at public grain warehouses shall terminate on June thirtieth of each year, except storage contracts for dry edible beans which shall terminate on April thirtieth of each year. If storage charges and warehouseman's advances remain unpaid at the time of such termination, the warehousemen shall sell sufficient of said grain to pay such charges and advances. The holder hereof shall surrender this receipt to the issuing warehousemen for settlement." (SEC. 60-02-16(6), ND Century Code)
