Subject: 12 fence poles in yard of Art Langved

Hi Victor:

As per our conversation yesterday, attached please find pictures of the fence posts that Art Langved put into the yard of his house.

I believe the oil company may be not like Mr. Langved because he refused to grant permission to drill in the location where it drilled or grant easements to the midstream oil and gas gathering companies or roads or fencing.

I believe the oil company is harassing Mr. Langved by placing a guard shack on his property across from his house shining bright lights at his house during the night.

Now they continue to harass him by complaining to one call. He can't fence his yard? He put up twelve fence posts in the yard of his house.

This all seems really unbelievable to me.

It would seem extremely unfair to my mind that you would even consider imposing a fine on Mr. Langved, to the contrary the party complaining should be fined for trying to further abuse Mr. Langved and the one call system.

Thanks for you help and time in this matter,

Tom
