Shelly,

I had sold my company back in 2012/2013 and no longer handle or sell fertilizer and chemical. I am raising certified seed at this time. I am only looking to get into another line of business which would be to sell scales in ND, so with that I would also like to be able to check and certify scales since I know it has been hard for the current scale companies to keep up. I don't feel you or anyone else can make the comment that I may not be trustworthy enough to do my job since I have a scale myself and may not treat others fairly. ( you did make that comment to me on our phone conversation several months back). Please let me know what other options and what I would have to do for me to be able to start a new business in scale certification. With all the oil activity and local grain elevators I am sure there is a need for more people in this line of work. I will be getting help from Phil Mycintre from Specialty Products out of Fargo, ND to start up my business.

Thanks Todd

Shelly,

I had sent in my application to be registered and or certified to check weight scales in ND. I have not heard anything back at this time. Just making sure you received my application and would like a response to know when I would expect some info back.

Thanks,
Todd
