RE: Agtegra Cooperative
Discontinue Business

On March 19, 2018, the Commission received a request from Agtegra Cooperative (formerly South Dakota Wheat Growers Association) to discontinue licensing its grain facility in Berlin, North Dakota.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Berlin facility was licensed by James Valley Grain, LLC, Oakes, North Dakota. There were unsettled deferred payment contracts that were retained by Agtegra Cooperative and not transferred to James Valley Grain, LLC. Since Berlin was Agtegra Cooperative's only licensed location, they were required to maintain their license due to the unsettled contracts.

As of March 19, 2018, Agtegra Cooperative has a licensed location at Hague, ND and therefore is able to discontinue their license at Belin, ND and continue to hold the unsettled deferred payment contracts.

Staff recommends the request be approved. A corresponding motion and order are attached.
