Dear Commissioners:

In connection with the above-referenced docket, Harmony Solar ND, LLC (Harmony Solar) provides the following updates related to the Harmony Solar Project (Project).

Parent Company Name/Contact Update

National Grid Renewables (previously identified as the parent company of Harmony Solar) was recently acquired by Brookfield Asset Management and is now operating under the name Geronimo Power. Going forward, please send any communications related to Harmony Solar and the Project to my new email address: amohammad@geronimopower.com.

Fall Pre-Seeding Activities

As part of our proactive site preparation efforts, Harmony Solar will be conducting pre-seeding activities this fall at the Project site. The pre-seeding is being conducted to help stabilize the soil and support erosion control in advance of construction.
