of transcribing the record was zero. Now that the parties are considering inclusion of these recordings, the Public Service Commission is working to obtain both cost and time estimates for transcribing these recordings, in order to convey that information to the parties before a determination is made.

[¶ 5] Appellants and Appellees have discussed the situation and the need to extend the time for filing the certified record.

[¶ 6] The parties have agreed to extend the deadline for filing the certified record to January 31, 2019, and respectfully request the Court to order such extension.

[¶ 7] This Stipulation may be signed in counterparts, each of which is incorporated into the final document.

[¶ 8] The undersigned represent and warrant each has the authority to bind the party designated under each person's signature. This Stipulation sets forth all of the terms of the agreement reached between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Stipulation and supersedes any and all prior negotiations and understandings.

[¶ 9] Signatures to the Stipulation may be provided by facsimile or other electronic means and will be as binding on the party so providing them as an original signature.

[¶ 10] This Stipulation is effective as of the date executed by the final party and will remain in effect unless a subsequent stipulation is executed by all the parties hereto or by court order after notice and opportunity to be heard has been given to all parties. No party will be deemed to have waived any rights under this Stipulation absent a written statement of waiver signed by the party alleged to have waived any rights.

[¶ 11] This Stipulation will be construed and interpreted under the laws of the State of North Dakota.
