Re: Co-op Elevator of McClusky v. Hunter Hanson d/b/a Midwest Grain Trading
Our File No.: 053564.18000

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

Co-op Elevator of McClusky ("Elevator"), P.O. Box 469, 312 Avenue A West, McClusky, ND 58463 hereby submits its claim against Hunter Hanson d/b/a Midwest Grain Trading ("Midwest Grain") in the amount of $768,370.40 plus applicable interest and its fees and costs to the Public Service Commission ("PSC").

Midwest Grain agreed to purchase Hard Red Spring Wheat ("HRSP") from the Elevator in exchange for payment. The Elevator provided 126,110 bushels of HRSP to Midwest Grain from August to September of 2018. Midwest Grain remitted partial payment to the Elevator in the form of a check dated October 16, 2018 in the amount of $332,433.03 to be drawn on First International Bank and Trust. Midwest Grain's check was returned for insufficient funds on October 18, 2018. Midwest Grain issued a second check which represented half of the amount due to Elevator for the same amount, $332,433.03, on October 26, 2018. The same was returned for insufficient funds on October 31, 2018.

Enclosed, please find the following supportive documents:

1. Copies of Scale Tickets;
2. Copies of Purchase Contracts;
3. Copies of Bills of Lading;
4. Copies of NSF Checks along the bank printout showing the checks as NSF;
5. Copies of Settlement Sheets.

As I previously stated, my client is in the process of serving and filing a separate Complaint for breach of contract against Midwest Grain. Should a judgment be entered in that case and my client
