CHS Garrison – Grain Claim

CHS Garrison had a contract with Midwest Grain Trading with East Central Grain Marketing Inc. acting as the broker. See contract attached hereto as Exhibit A. The contract was for 130,000 bushels at $6.65 per bushel. Midwest Grain Trading also agreed to pay freight to CHS because in the amount of $0.673 per bushel because Midwest Grain Trading could not haul the grain.

CHS Garrison is owed for grain and delivery charges on 49,000.31 bushels totaling $359,182.93. See the breakdown attached hereto as Exhibit B. Supporting scale tickets for deliveries are attached hereto as Exhibit C. Exhibit B is a summary of all of the scale tickets included in Exhibit C.

On November 19, 2108, CHS Garrison cancelled the remaining 65,946.23 bushels on the contract. CHS Garrison used the State Mill Bid on that date minus freight and handling fob bid. The resulting price was $4.37 per bushel. See Exhibit D. This was a difference of $2.28 lower than the contract price for damages in the amount of $150,357.40 on bushels contracted for but not delivered.

The total amount Midwest Grain Trading owes to CHS Garrison for the grain delivered to and not paid for and for damages for grain not delivered is $509,518.53.
