Briefly describe your claim using the space below. Please include any of the following: details of your agreement/contract, grain on storage, grain broker involvement, any additional information you wish to add.

I got a call back in April 2018 from a grain broker, Chad, with "east central grain marketing" who told me he has done business with one of my neighbors. I did my homework, called my neighbor to make sure everything checked out. Called PSC to make sure midwest grain trading was bonded by the state and finely decided to start selling my durum to him. Our first contract was 6-13-18 for 20,000 bu of durum that would be hauled by Aug 1 - Aug 31. As you can see my first load finally got hauled on Sept. 9th. I called Midwest Grain and talked with Chris to ask when I could get paid and he told me not until my first contract was 100% hauled in. I was shocked and upset telling him thats not right but they wouldn't move on what he said. So I had to wait until my 20,000 bu was hauled in. It took until Nov 9th for them to haul in the loads and hit that! I called again, Chris and he was making up stories that it might take a while before I was going to get paid. I called PSC on Nov 13, 2018 when I talked with Conrad and told him my story and he told me he has been getting bad calls about Midwest Trading. I took over as a young 5th generation farmer 10 years ago and still am, this has been a terrible hit for our family and risk for loss of our multigenerational heritage, home and job.

Are any offsets owed? No Yes, provide amount and detail.

the "ticket copy" are ticket copys from two truck companys that came into my yard. Leer trucking has 18 loads but they don't seem to have all my paper work in order some tickets with some others with statements. And neumiller farms only had two loads and they do have my ticket copy the "statement copy" is from Leer trucking and again they seem to be missing some of the statements the "my copys" these are from each trucker text me a picture after they unloaded my load and any locations. I have 100% picture text from these guys.
