John,

My estimate to transcribe a 9 1/2 hour hearing and provide an original transcript with concordance and a CD containing a pdf version is $2,800 to $3,000.

I apologize as I have been out of my private office for the past two days. I was not aware that was the extent of the phone call at the time. I can't imagine there is much difference based amongst those qualified to do the job, so it is what it is. Please let me know if there is anything additional you may need from me at this time.

Thanks,

Subject: Transcripts and Certified Record

Kim,

I attempted to contact you on Monday, August 23rd regarding the certified record. The costs for transcription and certification of the record by the agency are borne by the Appellant. Not having heard back from you or had the opportunity to discuss options for alternatives, we will move forward with the transcription services selected by the agency.

The current cost estimate is $4,000. This may change depending on the quality and content of the recording and other filings. The agency will provide you an invoice once the certified record is provided to ND Courts.

Best,

John M. Schuh
