ORDER ON PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

OCTOBER 20, 2021

On May 3, 2021, Qwest Corporation (Qwest) filed an application in Case No. PU-21-3, for a protective order to protect against public disclosure of information, which Qwest filed with the Commission, qualifying as an exemption to N.D.C.C. section 44-04-18.

Qwest requests the North Dakota Public Service Commission, pursuant to Chapter 69-02-09 of the North Dakota Administrative Code, to issue a protective order limiting the disclosure of the North Dakota CLEC-specific payment and performance reports that Qwest submits monthly in the captioned case.

The North Dakota CLEC-specific payment and performance reports contain information pertaining to individual and specific customers of Qwest concerning those customers' businesses.

Qwest is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of this information. In addition, the disclosure of this information to the public would violate the confidentiality interests of the CLEC customers themselves without their permission.

This information provides independent economic value, actual or potential, is not generally known to, and not readily ascertainable by proper means to, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure.

The information at issue is proprietary to Qwest and is available only to those employees and representatives who have a need to know the information to perform their duties and responsibilities.

Competitors or potential competitors of Qwest that provide local exchange service and other telecommunications service would obtain economic value from disclosure or use of the information.

Competitors and potential competitors of Qwest in North Dakota include AT&T Communications of the Midwest, Inc., McLeodUSA Telecommunications Services, Inc., MCimetro Access Transmission Services, LLC, Sprint Communications Company L.P.,

Excel Telecommunications, Inc., and any other provider of telecommunications services in North Dakota or any of the other states in which Qwest operates.

North Dakota Administrative Code Section 69-02-09-03 requires that the Commission staff examine the information and application and make a recommendation to the Commission. Commission Staff has reviewed the requests and has recommended that protection of the information be granted.

Having reviewed each application and Commission Staff's recommendation, the Commission determines that the information filed in the captioned case satisfies the requirements of North Dakota Century Code for protection of information.

ORDER

The Commission Orders that Qwest's May 3, 2021, application for protection of information in Case No. PU-21-3 is GRANTED.
