Yes, the noxious weed plan that you proposed seemed satisfactory to the board as well as myself, thanks.

Hi Josh,

I'm following up on our conversation from a couple of weeks ago. From our discussion it sounded like the plan that I shared seem to fit what your board would be looking for. I'm just checking in to see if there are any additional comments or questions that we can answer for you after sharing with any other members.

Thanks and talk to you again soon,

Scott
