I received a notice from the USPS about a letter from Coteau (see attachments).

It is important to note that our USPS rural postal delivery is sporadic. Often we have zero mail for multiple days ... and letters we attempt to mail stay in the mailbox.

One USPS rural postal carrier (we asked when delivering to our mailbox) stated that there is a shortage of workers.

Sometimes items sent via USPS are lost. Recently, a USPS tracking number tracked it to our house, but we did not receive it. That package was not at the Bismarck Post Office. That package was never delivered.

This was not a surprise, as some other packages, shipped via USPS, have also been lost.

Request that Coteau email that letter to <cte677@gmail.com>

Or ship that letter via UPS. For us, UPS has never lost a package.
