

affected by the ND Public Service Commission's findings and conclusions in this matter. Affected Landowners are intimately familiar with the land they own and rent and can provide the PSC with specific information related to its routing determination in this proceeding, with respect to their individual lands.

4. Affected Landowners are not adequately represented by existing parties, and their intervention would not unduly broaden the issues or delay the proceedings, particularly given the early nature of the proceedings.
5. Affected Landowners intend to present evidence opposing Summit's requested relief in its Application and all Landowners object and resist the current proposed location of Summit's proposed pipeline.
