

Summit Carbon Solutions' carbon capture, transportation, and storage project is different from the CO2 line in Mississippi in many respects. For example, our proposed project will compress, transport, and store CO2, which is of high purity, nonexplosive, and nonflammable. The system in Mississippi carried Hydrogen Sulfide, which is flammable and highly toxic.