I, Kevin Pranis, Marketing Manager for Laborers District Council of Minnesota and North Dakota ("LIUNA"), hereby certify that I met and conferred with counsel for the Applicant SCS Carbon Transport LLC ("Summit") regarding LIUNA's interrogatories to Summit, as required by North Dakota Rule of Civil Procedure 37. On June 12, 2023, beginning at 10:00 AM, I participated in a virtual meeting via Microsoft Teams with Summit's counsel, Spencer Ptacek, and Alex Bollman, an attorney advising LIUNA on this matter. During the meeting, Summit's counsel indicated several times that they would not be responding to any of LIUNA's interrogatories requesting information related to Pumpco, Inc. because they consider LIUNA's requests to be untimely. I explained why LIUNA believes the requests to be timely and Summit's counsel repeated its position that they would not be responding to any of LIUNA's requests because they consider them to be untimely. Both Ms. Bollman and I requested to go over the substance of LIUNA's requests and Summit's specific objections to each of the requests. Summit's counsel refused to engage in such discussions. In sum, the parties were unable to reach agreement during the Microsoft Teams meeting regarding LIUNA's interrogatories.
