experienced.

The AG's attorney stated that they do not believe that the meeting would be a violation of Open Meetings Law UNLESS a quorum of any legislative committee were to show up.

However, because it is "legislator invite only" if such a thing were to occur, the only people who would know are the organizers of the event and the legislators themselves. And obviously the legislators are not going to tattle on themselves.

It was strongly suggested to me that the Ethics Commission would be the more appropriate authority to file a complaint with on this matter.

So I did.

Below is the PDF of the complaint I f...
