Not sure if you want to include something like this?

Interested in your thoughts – some of the emergency managers used this to ensure attendance by invitees only.

Good tip. Or I can call Phat Shack and have her do box lunches also?

The pizza restaurant closed in Linton.

May be easier to do a boxed lunch from Family Fare and don't have to worry about keeping anything warm?

5:30 it is, then – I think that the easiest in Linton would be to pick up some pizzas, so I'll do that in place of catering – I'll also bring a cooler of sodas and water.

Thanks!

Will you be compiling the invite list?

What do you need me to do?

The auditorium is more widely used for our rural responders.
It's easier for the Sheriff's Department to attend (new hires) since they're located on the main floor.
It would only be set up for the limited number of responders.
May also want to RSVP if you're hosting a meal again for better numbers.

Just got confirmation from Alex that he can do the 24th.

I'm wondering if the courthouse auditorium is the proper venue? We could also rent the multi-purpose room at the city building – my only concern is that we may end up with some agitators if we hold it in the auditorium – we had invitees from previous meetings that publicized our invite-only events to the opposition folks, and had a significant number of anti-pipeline people there. Your thoughts?

Thanks,
Dave

Recommended dates received:

January 17th 5:30
January 24th 5:30

Turns out that Wednesdays work pretty good with extracurricular activities.

We could host the meeting in the County Auditorium.

Good Morning! I think we should try and schedule an evening later in January that works for you – what would be your preference? Maybe a few options that I could get to Alex.

He has Monday-Tuesday available next week, and will be in South Dakota for meetings on Wednesday and Thursday.

I'm not sure of his schedule in the weeks following, but with a few options of your schedule will try and lock him down with a date of your preference.

Thanks, Mary!

Dave

Good Morning!

Alex Lange has time available next Monday afternoon or evening, or Tuesday morning. Would any of these times work for us to do the dispersion meeting in Linton?

Thanks!
