Search for missing man goes from 'proactive' to 'reactive'

Family loses Christmas spirit as holiday nears with no answer

BY KELLI AMELING
ASSOCIATE PUBLISHER

It has been about three weeks since a man went missing from Bismarck and was last seen in McLean County.

Daily organized searches have now been reduced to weekend attempts as the children of Lloyd Liken returned to work this week.

An alert was issued for Lloyd Liken, 81, of Bismarck, who was last seen Nov. 16 by family leaving the 4400 block of Turnbow Lane in Bismarck driving a gold Toyota Highlander with license plate number 745 BMN at about 8 p.m.

Liken is a 6-foot-tall white male, with grey hair and blue eyes, weighing about 200 pounds.

A confirmed sighting of his vehicle was seen at about 1 a.m. Nov. 18 traveling southbound on N.D. Highway 83 by mile marker 119 near Wilton.

For the first two weeks of his disappearance, Liken's daughter Lisa Liken-Monroe and her husband Chad have been holding daily searches throughout Central North Dakota with the help of Badlands Search and Rescue Service.

As of Dec. 4, the organized searches are now down to weekends as Lisa and Chad returned to work.

"The search for Lloyd Liken continues but it is taking a more reactive stance rather than being proactive," Lisa said. "This means that (we) are just waiting for any sort of tips to come in yet. The family will continue to search for Lloyd until he is found but their searching will be done on the weekends as time and weather allow."

Lisa said the family is battling the grieving cycle – trying to keep a glimmer of hope while going through all the steps that come with grief.

"(I am) seeing a counselor to help work things through as it is difficult to gain any type of closure when you don't have a definitive outcome yet," Lisa explained.

Lisa said her father has a love for Elvis, and with Christmas nearing with no answers, she described the holiday season as "a blue one."

The search for Lloyd began in Central North Dakota due to the confirmed sighting Nov. 18, but has now gone not just state-wide but the search is now ongoing in multiple states.

"(We are) pleading that any land owners in North Dakota, South Dakota or Iowa to please check their properties," she stressed.

Although she is not convinced her father left the state, Lisa said she has learned a lot about dementia through this experience and the neighboring states were added due to Lloyd's connection to them.

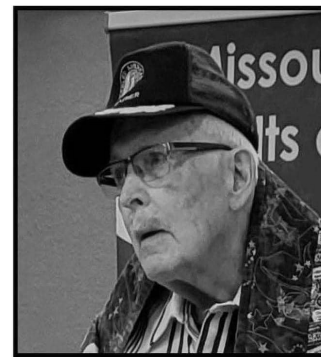

Anyone with information is asked to call the Bismarck Police Department at 701-223-1212 or 911.

For daily updates and search meetings, follow "Looking for Lloyd Liken" on Facebook.
