Hi Brian,

Have we heard anything else regarding this? Can I make it public?

Thanks,
Erica

We have received your submission of FCC form 555.

It states that you wish for this to be filed as confidential. No application for protection of information has been received as is required by North Dakota Administrative Code 69-02-09, and upon reviewing the information I cannot discern any information contained in the application that is eligible for protection. Please let me know what the basis for confidentiality is based on, and if you plan on filing an application for protection of information.
